

ABSTRACT

During its development, an animated cartoon is very advanced and diverse. For animated cartoon that was very advanced, animated cartoons are now more and more in demand. This is because the animated cartoon made in such a way that all the components on the animated cartoon as member brings a vivid impression and feeling for the watch to drift into it. One of them is in the character faces.

Facial expressions are very important in making animated cartoons, because of facial expressions of emotion that represents how the characters are feeling. From an animated cartoon faces can be easier to convey the message that the story contained in it. Own facial expressions depicted in various forms according to the emotions being felt.

*Of thing is exactly, the authors studied the character faces for 2 dimensional cartoon film You Are My Everything. So the author tries to analyze how the facial expressions depicted on a particular emotion to be applied to 2-dimensional cartoon character You Are My Everything.*

Keywords : Cartoon Film, Animated Cartoon, Facial Ecpressions, Mimic